

LET'S CLEAN UP CONGRESS, TOO!

Elect Responsible Candidates to the SENATE:

•KANSAS — WILLIAM R. (BILL) ROY vs. Incumbent Robert J. Dole, a former Republican National Chairman and a strong supporter of the Administration's Indochina policy. Dr. Roy was first elected in 1970 to the House of Representatives from the second district and has a fine voting record. Kansas has not sent a Democrat to the Senate in 44 years but this year observers believe that Dr. Roy has an excellent chance. Physician and lawyer. •NORTH DAKOTA — WILLIAM GUY vs. Incumbent Milton R. Young, ranking minority member of the Appropriations Committee, who usually votes to support the military. Guy was governor of North Dakota from 1961 to 1972. In 1967 he urged President Johnson to take steps through the UN to end the Vietnam War. In 1969 he wrote to Senator Stennis, Chairman of the Armed Services Committee, concerning deployment of an Anti-Ballistic Missile (ABM) system: "It would open the door to almost unlimited defense spending in billions of dollars at a time when increased domestic spending requirements for poverty alleviation, crime control, air and water pollution correction, education services, health services, transportation construction demands, and many other urgent needs have built up almost to the bursting point. This nation can no longer ignore these critical domestic social problems in setting the priorities of federal appropriations. These social problems can no longer be pushed aside in favor of excessive and unnecessary military expenditures." Governor Guy is currently a farmer. Age: 54 (1902 E. Divide, Bismarck, N.D. 58501)
